

BLIEFT, THE EEL

He always helps Lola the seabream with her inventions. He produces electricity. He speaks Dutch and English and is learning Spanish. He can also speak some German and French.

He loves Flamenco. He is the one who knows how to use the tools and machines and, of course, give to them the electricity through his nose. He has everything organize and neat.

